I need you to kill [REDACTED]. He poses a risk to exposing our whole operation. I know I told him to divorce [REDACTED], but I feel like that was a mistake and I should've just gotten him killed in the first place. I'd recommend inserting yourself as a witness into the situation, as it would make it easier to get close to [REDACTED] and kill him. I'd try using poison but a stabbing could work too. Maybe try bribing his lawyer? I heard Pablo Hernandez is having trouble paying their bills so that could be an incentive.

I know what you're trying to do. I know you are planning to get people killed. I will expose you. I will expose you.
